

The ITIA has determined that you committed an Offense under the Tennis Anti-Corruption Program and has issued you with a Notice setting out its decision and the sanction to be imposed.

Do you wish to accept or appeal the decision of the ITIA?

Accept

Appeal

If you admit the offense(s), there will not be a hearing but you can still give your views to the AHO on what sanction they should impose.

The AHO will convene a hearing to consider evidence presented by the ITIA and you, and then decide if you committed the offense(s) and, if so, the sanction they should impose.

Do you want to appeal the sanction that has been imposed?

Send your written submission by date set by the AHO

AHO hearing in person/by video conference

AHO decides you committed the offense(s)

Sanction

Your sanction as set out in the attached letter will become final.

You will be suspended from participation in professional tennis and have to pay a fine.

Sanction

You should note that the Anti-Corruption Hearing Officer may impose a higher sanction.

You could face a longer suspension from participation in professional tennis and a larger fine than that which is set out in the attached letter.

AHO decides you did not commit the offense(s)

You will be free to participate in tennis.

There is no right to appeal this decision for either you or the ITIA
